For quality you can trust, look for the Meat Standards Australia (MSA) symbol on the beef packaging. It's the easy way to identify cuts that will always be tender, juicy and tasty. Make sure packaging is secure . Only buy beef if it's in properly sealed, undamaged packaging with an acceptable use-by date.

Avoid dog food that lists “meat” generically as this is a sign of cutting corners in terms of the quality of ingredients due to much more relaxed quality guidelines for this ingredient label. Avoid “By-Products” – Whenever possible, avoid those foods that feature protein by-products such as “poultry by-products" as this is a lower quality source of protein.
