We may think of the twenty-seven books of the New Testament as the only sacred writings of the early Christians, but this is not at all the case. Lost Scriptures offers an anthology of up-to-date and readable translations of many non-canonical writings from the first centuries after Christ--texts that have been for the most part lost or neglected for almost two millennia.

This book is a companion to Bart Ehrman's Lost Christianities: The Battles For Scripture And The Faith We Never Knew, published in 2003. In that book Ehrman analyzed early variants on Christianity which were eventually ruled heretical by the established Church leadership, falling by the wayside completely or surviving only in small enclaves here and there.
