The 30th book in the Discworld series, the 2nd for young adults, and 1st in the Tiffany Aching apprentice witch series. The Chalk has a problem. It is an isolated agricultural community near the highly magical region of the Discworld known as the Ramtops. And it has no witches. Not even one. That means it is about to have Elves. Be quiet. But Miss Tick, professional witch finder (that is to

The Wee Free Men New Edition | Terry Pratchett | Discworld

The Wee Free Men is the first book in the Tiffany Aching subseries of Discworld. Calling it “young adult” might be a stretch since the protagonist is nine and I thought the story seemed suitable for a younger audience. On the other hand, as with many children protagonists, she probably behaved as if she were older than a typical nine-year-old.
